

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Why do I have to sign a Power of Attorney Form?

A: The Power of Attorney we require is for tax purposes only; it's an IRS document, form 2848. It allows us to represent you and allows IRS personnel to discuss your tax matters with us. For your piece of mind, it clearly states "Form 2848 will not be honored for any purpose other than representation before the IRS." (Just above section 1, Taxpayer Information).

Q: What should I do with the notices I have received?

A: Fax all notices you have received to us immediately.

Q: Will I continue to receive notices from the IRS?

A: YES. You will continue to receive notices. The IRS computers will continue to generate the notices which are sent to you. We cannot stop their computers, but we can protect you from the threats these notices contain. You must fax any notice you receive to our office immediately. This will help give us the most current and urgent information right away. Fax number for our Client Management Department is (888) 400-1699

Q: Why is time of the essence?

A: Many of the collection notices they send have deadlines you must meet to avoid additional problems; including but not limited to levies against banks, wages or other sources of income. Notices should never be ignored or put off. Fax any notice you receive to our office immediately.

Q: Is it necessary to provide requested data on a timely basis?

A: To achieve the best possible outcome for ALL of our clients, we make commitments to taxing agencies to win their cooperation. A major reason we are able to achieve positive results on behalf of so many clients is the credibility we have built with them by keeping our commitments. We will not jeopardize this hard-earned relationship on behalf of a client who is non-responsive.

Q: How long will it take to resolve my tax problem?

A: Every case has its own unique circumstances. Our firm endeavors to complete each case quickly. Waiting for information from clients and taxing agencies generally create the longest delays. Depending on the work that is required, cases may take as little as a few months to as long 16 months or even longer.

Q: Do I still have to talk to the IRS?

A: No, you should not communicate with them at all. From this point on, we will handle ALL correspondence with the IRS and state. We do not want our clients in a position where they may incriminate themselves or give the IRS more information than they must have. If they contact you, politely refer them to us, your power of attorney

Q: Do you sign on my behalf with the IRS?

A: No. We will prepare tax returns and or documents for submission to the IRS. They will then be sent to you via US Mail. You will need to sign the forms and mail them to the IRS in a timely manner. Here again, time is of the essence.

Q: How will I communicate with your team?

A: The preferred communication method is email, so please check email often. We work as a team here at Authority Tax Services; multiple members of our staff will communicate with you as we work on your case. You will be contacted only when important information is needed from you or action is required by you. You will receive an email (in some cases a phone call). Any time you have a question regarding what is required of you or would like an update on the status of your case; feel free to call our Client Management Department at (800) 634-2024
